MONTPELIER

Mrs. F. A. Allen, Jr., and J. A. Rogers of Northfield were visitors in the city Tuesday.

State Treasurer Walter F. Scott of Brandon arrived in the city on Tuesday.

Harry Dickinson of Orleans, an inspector for the secretary of state, arrived in the city on Monday.

L. A. Kelly, state insurance commissioner, was in Burlington on Tuesday.

The cause of the fire which recently destroyed a house in Westerville has been assigned by A. G. Preble, deputy state fire marshal, as a defective chimney, not faulty electric wiring. The recent fire in the basement of the Odd Fellows' block off Elm street, Montpelier, is not attributed by the deputy fire marshal to defective wiring, but to the accumulation of rubbish, although it is not known how the rubbish started burning. The fact that none of the fuses were blown out & regarded by Mr. Preble as proof that the wiring was not responsible for the fire.

Richard Harvey was sentenced to from six to twelve months in the house of correction this morning by Judge F. L. Laird in Montpelier city court for a third offense of intoxication.

Harvey was arrested last night. Convictions reported to the secretary of state are: George Demar Johnson in Orleans county municipal court Nov. 20, before Judge W. M. Wright for driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, pleaded guilty, fined $50 and costs of $14.15 and given five days in jail; Charles H. McCauley, same date, court and judge, pleaded guilty to same charge, fined $75 and costs of $7.05.

In probate court, Kate E. West has been appointed administratrix of the estate of Mary I. West, late of Barre City. Charles B. Adams has settled his final account as guardian of Marion J. Nesbit of Waterbury.

Miss Katherine Pine is recovering from a sprained ankle, which has confined her to the house for the past week.

EMPLOYMENT GAINS IN 29 INDUSTRIES

And Losses in 14 Industries—Car Shops Show Great Gain.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—Employment increased in 29 and decreased in 14 industries in October as compared with September, the department of labor announced to-day. In the same period 34 of the 43 industries reported increased payrolls. The figures covered 3,064 representative establishments, which employed 1,525,785 persons last month.

Car building and repairing plants, as in September, reported the greatest increase in employment with 13.7 per cent in October, due to the resumption of work in that industry. Increases ranging from 4.6 to 5.9 per cent were reported for glass, foundry and machine shops, woolen manufacturing, iron and steel and chemicals.

Strikes caused a 20.9 per cent decrease in the pottery industry's employment, while decreases of 6.8 and 5.9 per cent, respectively, were shown in fertilizer and automobile manufacturing.

TO CONTINUE WORK.

On Being Urged by Moscow Government to Continue.

Constantinople, Nov. 22. (By the Associated Press).—H. O. Jaquith, managing director for the American Near East Relief, has returned to Constantinople from Moscow where he negotiated an agreement with the soviet government concerning future relief work of Americans in Georgia and Armenia. The Moscow authorities, he reports, urged continuance of American humanitarian efforts promising its unqualified support. The Caucasian republic's connection with Moscow made it necessary for the Near East Relief to secure endorsement of its plans by the highest soviet authorities.

POPE POSTPONES ACTION.

For Appointment of Apostolic Delegate to United States.

Rome, Nov. 22.—Pope Pius has decided to postpone the official announcement of the appointment of Archbishop Pietro Fumasoni Biondi as apostolic delegate to the United States in succession to Monsignor Bonanni until after the December consistory, desiring that Monsignor Fumasoni-Biondi should confer with Monsignor Bonanni before going to Washington. Monsignor Bonanni is now on his way to Rome to attend the consistory at which he will receive the red hat.

STARVED HIMSELF TO DEATH.

Reno Woman Said Food Did Not Agree With Her.

Reno, Nev., Nov. 22.—Mrs. Pearl A. Cochran, 35, is dead here to-day from a self-imposed fast. Her physician said she had not taken food for 30 days.

A year ago Mrs. Cochran had her attorney swear out a warrant charging her with insanity, but at that time she was regarded as sane. She told her attorney and her physician food did not agree with her and eventually would kill her.
